Instructions to Jewish Students Applying for a Karen Sokolof Javitch Merit Music Scholarship Academic Year 2022-2023

This application is for a merit scholarship for a Jewish student from the Omaha metropolitan area who is currently pursuing a degree in music performance, composition or music education at a college, university or music conservatory. This scholarship is not based on financial need, but is in recognition of musical and personal achievements, overall good character, scholastic performance, and community service. An applicant (or his/her family if the student has been attending college outside Omaha) must have resided in the Omaha metropolitan area for at least the past two years.

Your application form must be received by the Sokolof Scholarship Coordinator by April 1, 2022. You are responsible for seeing that all documentation and references are received by that date.

1. You are only eligible to be awarded a Sokolof Merit Scholarship three times.
2. Complete the application form. Please print legibly in black ink in all areas that do not require typed responses. Attach additional sheets, with your name at the top, where necessary.
3. Sign the application (page 3) and submit it to the Sokolof Scholarship Coordinator at the address above prior to April 1, 2022.
4. Arrange for your college/university transcripts from all institutions since high school to be sent to the Sokolof Scholarship Coordinator at the address above prior to April 1, 2022.
5. Give a recommendation form to each person you have selected. Remember to complete the top of the confidential form with your signature for your voluntary waiver to access the recommendation. If you are downloading your application form from the internet, you will need to print three recommendation forms.

Please give a recommendation form to three people (not family members). At least one must be from a faculty member at your college/university who is familiar with your dedication to the musical field. Other recommendations may be from someone you worked with in a volunteer or employment setting, clergy, or anyone who can attest to your personal character and/or academic/musical abilities. These forms are confidential. Please sign the waiver on each form.

The people submitting recommendations must return their forms by April 1, 2022 to the Sokolof Scholarship Coordinator, Jewish Federation of Omaha Foundation, 333 S. 132nd Street, Omaha, NE 68154. In order to facilitate the timely return of your recommendations, it is advisable to attach to each recommendation form a legal-size, stamped envelope, addressed to the Sokolof Scholarship Coordinator.

You may call Diane Walker, Sokolof Scholarship Coordinator, at 402.334.6551 or email her at dwalker@jewishomaha.org with any questions.

While the deadline is April 1, 2022, earlier submissions are encouraged.
The recipients of the Sokolof Scholarships will be notified by May 6, 2022.
